World Book Day 2025

Yesterday, Thursday 6th March, saw an array of vocabulary linked costumes as we celebrated World Book Day 2025! Words such as parcel, injury, glittery, pirate, astronaut, disastrous, Goddess, memories, exotic, prisoner, solar system, clumsy, ballerina, crayon, and colourful were amongst the many creative ideas! The children read books, wrote reviews and recommendations, create alternative book covers, drew scenes and characters, and compared characters from different stories. A wonderful day was had by all. A huge thank you to Parents, Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles and carers who supported the children with their costumes.

Exciting Update: Arts Festival Date Change

We recently shared the exciting news that our children will be participating in a Festival week celebrating song, dance, and art. We are thrilled to announce that we will be collaborating with twenty-two schools from Tamworth and Burton, as well as local high schools, to make this event truly special. Please note that we have had to amend the original date. Kindly mark your calendars for Saturday, 5th July. We are working closely with Tamworth Council to create a memorable day filled with performances by our talented children.

More detailed information will be provided before we break up for Easter. We appreciate your understanding and support, and we look forward to celebrating this wonderful event with you and your children.
