Special mention:

Georgie (2 Attenborough) read at home eight (8) times this week! Well done Georgie for doing above and beyond your duty!

Special mention:

This week, we had a nomination by a person who served some of our boys in the local shop. They were in their uniform so were representing our school. It was said that they had impeccable manners, were extremely polite as they asked, "How are you today?" and listened carefully to the answer before saying "Goodbye, have a nice day". This showed true pride in the way they presented themselves, represented our school and what we expect, and their community by taking the time to speak politely to someone; thank you, boys. Congratulations to Roscoe, Cody, Kylan (all from 5 Seacole).

KS2 Reading Raffle winners 13th June: All winners this week are boys which has never happened before! Well done!

6 Pankhurst:	Anesti

Win the Bin!

For showing “Pride in our school” through keeping classroom areas tidy. Our winners chosen this week by Evan (6 Pankhurst) are...

4 Williamson
– again!
Well done

2 Attenborough

Special mention:

A huge thank you to Evan (6 Pankhurst) who completed this role with integrity and a real sense of duty and pride. He devised a point system as a way of working out final winners if there were two or three classes that he was unable to decide between! Well done, Evan!

TT Rockstars Battles – year group battles of boys against girls!

Year 1	Boys	Logan
Year 2:	Boys	Chester
Year 3:	Boys	Nathaniel
Year 4:	Girls	Millie T
Year 5:	Girls	Merida
Year 6:	Boys	George

Next week, TT winners will have shown that they are true “TT Rockstars” as they will be chosen for several reasons; effort, perseverance, overcoming hurdles, achievements etc. Let the new battle commence!

Special mention:

Charlotte (4 Darwin) was amazing and had her hair cut last week; however, it was not swept up and put in the bin. She has donated her very long ponytail to the Little Princess Trust. With her Mum’s permission, here is the link for her just giving page:
