20 Positive Points go to everyone in St Patricks who competed! If you didn't take part this week, try again next week.

Physical Development

Reception City of London showed their perseverance skills whilst developing their physical development skills on the trim trail and the tyres. They also waited patiently for their turn. The children demonstrated true pride in their school by collecting the rubbish that had gathered around the tyres. Well done Reception and thank you.

Special Mentions...

Alannah (3 Pembrokeshire) persevered with her swimming until she got her 600m swimming certificate; she was very proud of herself. Congratulations, Alannah.

Esmae (5 Somerset) was presented with a trophy from her Steps Dance Class for the most improved dancer in the Junior category. Congratulations, Esmae.

Mia (6 Derbyshire) has been so enthralled by the historical events of Pompeii, that she went home and created her own erupting volcano and found out numerous facts! Well done, Mia.

Rory (5 Somerset) was very lucky to have had an amazing experience recently...he was a pilot for a day! High Aspirations in every sense of the word! Well done, Rory.

Special Mention

A huge thank you to those parents who were able to along to the informal meet and greet session on Thursday 23rd April with Parent Coach, Stacy Anderson, who will be holding support sessions at the Family Hub. We hope that you found it useful.
